Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2 - President Richard Fleck is the son of board member and founder Alcyon Fleck, husband of Children Services Director, Sharon Fleck, and brother-in-law of Finance Director, Karen Wecker.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Once the 990 is completed, it is circulated to three board member of ICC, including at least two officers. If any of these three board member feel changes are needed, this is brought to the attention of the other reviewing members. Once all three reviewing board members agree that the document is correct, it is finalized with official signatures.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - In the fall of 2002, ICC administration conducted an analysis of compensation of employees of the organization. Sources used in the study included 1) US Department of Labor National Compensation Survey: Occupation Wages in the Pacific Census Division, January 2001 for organizations; 2) Compensation in Nonprofit Organizations, 15th Edition 2002 by Abbott Langer 7 Associates; 3) North Pacific Union of Seventh-day Adventist. The wages of each employee, including the CEO and directors, were compared to wage categories using these three sources. An industry standard for each category was determined using the "Compensation in Nonprofit Organization" source. In order to find an industry standard wage for each category, a weighted average was used for the following factors in the survey when comparing ICC to other companies; 20% overall mean, 10% number of employees, 25% type of organization (social services), 10% annual budget, 15% number of employees supervised, 20% scope (international). Once the industry standard wage was determined for each category of worker, the other two sources of information (Department of Labor and North Pacific Union Conference) were consulted to make sure this industry standard was reasonable. The industry standard wage scale that was determined helped form the basis for creating a compensation plan for ICC employees. 2002 COMPENSATION PLAN: Each position oat ICC is given a base rate of pay. This is based on the industry standard. The employee's wage is then calculated based on the number of years worked at ICC - Managers start at 80% of the base rate and increase 2% each year. Non-managers start at 90% of the base rate and increase 2% each year. The increase is somewhat flexible and may depend upon subjective factors, including job performance and supervisory recommendations. The Board of Directors for ICC has delegated the issue of employee compensation to the Executive Committee of the board. The Executive Committee met on December 19, 2002 and discussed the findings concerning compensation and the recommended plan. The executive Board approved the compensation plan and voted to raise managers to industry-standard levels in four increments every six months, starting January 2003, and to raise the others to industry standards in January 2003. At the April 2007 and May 2008 Executive Committee meetings it was voted to approve a 2% cost of living increase retroactive to January of each of those years. Since 2008, with few exceptions, wages have been frozen as a measure to keep up with the financial challenges of the organization.
